

Announcing

History Camp Boston 2016

History Camp is the unconference dedicated to all things history.

Great opportunity to present and to engage with history professionals as well as ardent amateurs.

Saturday, March 26 at the Harriet Tubman House

566 Columbus Avenue – Near the Mass Ave T stop in Boston

Learn more, register, and submit your session: HistoryCamp.org/Boston

I had a great time. It was a wonderful day and I had no idea I'd have that much energy left after a marathon 9 hours of talks and talking. The whole day was invigorating, full of ideas to use as well as new information. I had a ball.

Marilynne Roach
Author, Six Women of Salem: The Untold Story of the Accused and Their Accusers in the Salem Witch Trials, and other books

I definitely would like to present again next year. The topics were excellent. The way it was run was excellent.

Patricia Violette
Executive Director, Curator, and CEO, The Shirley-Eustis House Association

 historycamp BOSTON 2016